DAYTON, Ohio, April 11, 1967 --- The Northern, Central and Southern Ohio chapters of the American Documentation Institute are sponsoring a one-day informational symposium this Friday, April 14, at the Cincinnati Engineering Society Headquarters, 1349 E. McMillan Street, Cincinnati.

The symposium program, under the direction of Mr. Ed Janning, a member of the Research Institute at the University of Dayton, is designed to acquaint people in business, industry, education and other professions with the informational services available in all areas of life.

Starting at 8 a.m. with registration, the business portion of the program will continue until 5 p.m. The annual banquet will follow at 6 p.m.

The keynote address will be delivered at 9 a.m. by Dr. Jesse H. Shera, Director, Center for Documentation and Communication Research, Western Reserve University.

Issues discussed in the morning will be the State Technical Services Act by James Furman, Executive Officer, Ohio Board of Regents; American Chemical Society by Edlen Johnson, Manager, Subscriber Information Department, Chemical Abstracts Service; Medical Literature Analysis and Retrieval System by Dr. Clifford A. Bachrach, Chief, Bibliographic Services Division, National Library of Medicine; and Educational Research Information Center by Dr. Lee G. Burchinal, Director, Division of Research Training and Dissemination, U.S. Office of Education.

Afternoon topics will be Clearinghouse for Federal Scientific and Technical Information by Bernard M. Fry, Director, Clearinghouse, U.D. Department of Commerce; National Referral Center for Science and Technology, by Charles McCabe, Assistant Chief, National Referral Center, Library Congress; Science Information Exchange by Dr. Monroe E. Freeman, Director, Science Information Exchange, Smithsonian Institute; U.S. Patent Office; Engineering Joint Council by Frank Y. Speight, Director, Information Program, Engineers Joint Council; and DOD, NASA, And AEC Summary by Edward Dugger, Technical Manager, Materials Information Branch, Materials Application Division, Air Force Materials Laboratory.

Guest Speaker for the banquet is Mr. David M. Liston, Chief, Information Systems Research Division, Battelle Memorial Institute.
